5. Approval Conditions

The products listed above are not compliant with certain requirements in JCB Contactless IC Terminal Specification ver1.3, which might trigger crucial issues with certain Legacy cards under some specific conditions.

The approval for Renewal is granted based on our initial research that there are no such cards existing in the field.

However, JCB retains the right to revoke the approval at its own discretion if the existence of these cards is detected, although the possibility of the existence is very low.

Thank you for your support of JCB brand business. We wish you success in your product offering.

Yours Sincerely,

Tac Watanabe
